

From: Alfred E. Spurr
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/10/01 2:54pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

The U.S. government is finally promoting the FREE enterprise system that this country was built on. Breaking up Microsoft would only make a mess out of a company which is only guilty of being competitive in a free enterprise system. Microsoft even helps its competitors by including some of their products on it's system.

The government did not break up IBM and look what that company has contributed to the business world.

Thank you, U.S. Government